hydrobiologia volume 281 (1994), contents

no. 1

T. A. Wellnitz, K. A. Grief & S. P. Sheldon: Response of macroinvertebrates to blooms of iron-depositing bacteria 1

G. D. Haffner, M. Tomczak & R. Lazar: Organic contaminant exposure in the Lake St. Clair food web 19

Y. R. Reddy & V. V. Kasaiah: Paraergasilus reductus n. sp. and P. brevidigitus Yin, 1954 (Copepoda, Poecilostomatoida) from freshwater fish ponds in India 29

E. J. Kirk & S. A. Perry: Macroinvertebrate production estimates in the Kanawha River, West Virginia 39

C. D. Jersabek: Encentrum (Parencentrum) walterkostei n. sp., a new dicranophorid rotifer (Rotatoria: Monogononta) from the high alpine zone of the Central Alps (Austria) 51

H. J. Dumont & A. Brancelj: Alona alsafadii n. sp. from Yemen, a primitive, groundwater-dwelling member of the A. karua-group 57

no. 2

P. Skyum, C. Christiansen, L. C. Lund-Hansen & J. Nielsen: Advection-induced oxygen variability in the North Sea–Baltic Sea transition 65

S. Meintjes, M. T. Seaman & D. J. Kok: Duration of inundation and change in physical and chemical characteristics of small temporary pans in South Africa 79

M. Crane: Population characteristics of Gammarus pulex (L.) from five English streams 91

J. M. Balczon & J. R. Pratt: A comparison of the responses of two microcosm designs to a toxic input of copper 101

C. R. Merayo & M. L. Villegas: Age and growth of Trisopterus luscus (Linnaeus, 1758) (Pisces, Gadidae) off the coast of Asturias 115

S. Brooks: An efficient and quantitative aquatic benthos sampler for use in diverse habitats with variable flow regimes 123

no. 3

L. G.-Tóth, Zs. Langó, J. Padisák & E. Varga: Terminal electron transport system (ETS)-activity in the sediment of Lake Balaton, Hungary 129

M. V. A. Tufescu: Seasonal variation patterns of the fish community in the littoral waters of northern Lake Ontario, the Pickering–Darlington area 141

M. A. S. Graça, L. Maltby & P. Calow: Comparative ecology of Gammarus pulex (L.) and Asellus aquaticus (L.) I: population dynamics and microdistribution 155

M. A. S. Graça, L. Maltby & P. Calow: Comparative ecology of Gammarus pulex (L.) and Asellus aquaticus (L.) II: fungal preferences 163

J. G. Webster, K. L. Brown & W. F. VIncent: Geochemical processes affecting meltwater chemistry and the formation of saline ponds in the Victoria Valley and Bull Pass region, Antarctica 171
